

I oppose your voting for further media consolidation. Currently, too many radio, television, print and satellite communication media lie in too few hands. For the sake of diversity and to foster the dissemination of minority opinion, please leave the current rules in place.

Thank you,

Yevgeniy Tsatskin